Diamond Spectacles.

THESE SPECTACLES are manufactured from "MINUTE CRYSTAL PEBBLES" melted together, and are called Diamond on account of their hardness and brilliancy. It is well known that spectacles cut from Brazilian or Scotch pebbles are very injurious to the eye, because of their polarizing light. Having been tested with the polariscope, the diamond lenses have been found to admit fifteen per cent. less heated rays than any other pebble. They are ground with great scientific accuracy, are free from chromatic abberrations, and produces a brightness and distinctness of vision not before attained in spectacles.
Manufactured by the Spencer Optical Manufacturing Comp New York. For sale by responsible agents in every city in the Union. H. A. HEATH & CO., Jewelers and Opticians, are sole Agents for Newport, R. "I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." THOSE TROUSERS.

INFANTILE ATTEMPTS AT BLACKMAILING. NO TRUST TO BE REPOSED IN A CHILD'S RETICENCE.

It is not wise to do or say anything to a child under an injunction not to tell. Here is a story in point, which was reported to me from the ladies at Fingask, Perthshire, (1853.) A Highland family of some dignity but not much means, was to receive a visit from some English relations for the first time. Great was the anxiety and great the efforts to make things wear a respectable appearance before these assumedly fastidious strangers. The lady had contrived to get up a pretty good dinner, but, either from an indulgent disposition, or from some defect in her set of servants, she allowed her son Bobby, a little boy, to be present, instead of remanding him to the nursery. But little was she aware of Bobby's power of torture.

Bobby, who was dressed in a new jacket and pair of buff-colored trousers, had previously received strict injunctions to sit at table quietly, and on no account to join in conversation. For a little while he carried out these instructions by sitting perfectly quiet till the last guest had been helped to soup, whereupon, during a slight lull in the general conversation, Bobby quietly said—

"I want some soup, mamma."

"You can't be allowed to have any soup, Bobby. You must not be always asking for things."

"If you don't give me some soup immediately, I'll tell you!"

The lady seemed a little troubled, and instead of sending Bobby out of the room, quietly yielded to his demand. Soup being removed and fish introduced, there was a fresh demand.

"Mamma, I want some sen-fish," (a rarity in the Highlands.)

"Bobby," said the mother, "you are very forward. You can't get any fish. You must sit quietly, and not trouble us so much."

"Well, mamma, if I don't get some fish, mind I'll tell you."

"Oh, Bobby, you're a plague!" and then she gave him the fish.

A little further on in the dinner, Bobby, observing his papa and the guests taking wine, was pleased to break in once more.

"Papa, I would like a glass of wine!"

By this time, as might well be supposed, the attention of the company had been pretty fully drawn to Bobby, about whom, in all probability, there prevailed but one opinion. The father was irritated at the incident.

"Bobby, you must be quiet; you can have no wine."

"Well, papa, if I don't get some wine, mind—I'll tell you."

"You rascal, you shall have no wine!"

"You had better do it," answered Bobby firmly. "Once, twice—will you give me the wine? Come, now, mind I'll tell you. Once, twice"—

The father looked canes and lashes at his progeny. Bobby, however, was not to be daunted.

"Here goes now! Once—twice—will you do it? Once—twice—thrice! My trousers were made out of mother's old window blinds!"

Stiff English party dissolves in inconstrainable merriment.—[Chamber's Journal.

SELF-CONSCIOUSNESS.

[BY HENRY WARD BEECHER.

"What shall I do to cure self-consciousness? or perhaps it is vanity, conceit, or whatever you may call it. I cannot do anything that brings praise that I do not go up, up, till I reach the nineties. And blame, or lack of praise, correspondingly sinks me below zero. Is there any cure or regulator for this condition of mind?" This is, in substance, the contents of quite a long letter, and as the experience is one which will touch thousands of your readers, it may be well to say a few words on the subject.

The love of praise differs from conceit, which is not so much a desire of praise as a consciousness of deserving praise. In phrenology one is called approbativeness and the other self-esteem. The first is the root of vanity and even self-consciousness; the other the root of pride and self-conceit. Both faculties are not to be suppressed, but only regulated.

The eager desire of praise may exist in undue activity, and may become the main motive, or, what is the same thing approbativeness may be the faculty used instead of conscience, honor, reason, etc. In managing this most difficult disposition, one should avoid all overt and positive seeking for praise. Especially ought one to have a conscience, or a sense of honor, which should prevent seeking praise not deserved, and praise for unworthy things; and praises from people whose characters should make us unwilling to be praised by them. In other words, every one should seek to have before him a standard of desert, and to use his reason and honor in not receiving what does not properly belong to him. All traps to have compliments, all insidious and remote expedients to secure attention and commendation, should be watched against vigilantly.

A great step has been gained when one has a high standard for himself and measures himself on that ideal standard. Often one will feel that he is praiseworthy, where others blame him; and, in like manner, he will tone down the praise given him, as not being fairly deserved.

No one need try to shut up the fountain, or to exterminate the feeling. It will break forth in hidden ways. The only true course is, to recognize the feeling and demand, since it will act, that it shall conform itself to things high and noble, and not feed upon poor and unworthy elements.

As to self consciousness, when one is in the presence of company or before an audience, we suspect that there is no general instruction for itself. Sometimes one is cured by becoming used to it; in other cases the affection is enhanced by this very thing. In some the cultivation of pride is a partial remedy; in others, the coming under the complete control of the subject of one's discourse; sometimes a resolute action of the will, shutting off the unworthy tendency, will avail. In religious services it is possible to many natures to rise so high toward the invisible and divine, that the failing is quite overcome by the presence and action of superior feelings. But, after all, there will be many cases in which men must bear the imperfection through life, as they would a distorted eye, a maimed limb, or an ungainly form.—[New York Ledger.

BEAUTY'S BOOT.—The following is at once an argument for separate sleeping cars for the fair and for the other sex: A gentleman occupied the upper berth in a certain section and a lady the lower. In that dim, uncertain daylight which dawns on travellers in heavily curtained "sleepers," the gentleman referred to tried to find his boots, but nowhere about his narrow bed could he find more than one of them. Looking downwards he thought he saw another on the berth below him; so reaching down he tried to lift it up. Strange to say, it lifted to a certain height and then fell from his hand. He tried again with the same result, and yet again with no better luck; when suddenly the boot apparently became endued with life and evaded his grasp. Then the situation flashed upon him and he became contrite. Contrition is a good thing, but it may also become a nuisance, for fancy a gentleman in the upper berth apologizing to the lady in the lower for mistaking her boot on her own foot for his own.

Much harmless satire has been expended on gentlemen's evening dress; but, after all, that can be more suitable for a dinner party than a swallow-tail coat?—[Punch's Almanack.

The rudiments of versification are perhaps within the reach of the most imbecile intellect, but to scoop in the "poetic unities" is what flings the great majority of the adopted children of Parnassus. We have before us at this moment a poem entitled "The Lay of the Last Egg," of which we beg to submit two stanzas as an illustration of our remark:

O shell that imprisons me.
Hatch! hatch! hatch!
O chicken that is to be.

"And the old hen wearily goes
To her nest just under the hill,
To wait for the 'peep!' of the coming chick,
For a sound of the voice that is still."

PROHIBITION A FAILURE.—Rev. Thomas Hill, D. D., ex-president of Harvard College, stated at a recent temperance meeting at Portland that in the experience of half a century, in various places, he had never seen so many young men intoxicated and staggering through the streets as he had seen in Portland during the past six months. And this, he said, shook his faith in the effects of a prohibitory law to shut up tippling houses, those dens of infamy where drunkards are made. He adjured all young men to abstain entirely, and urged the friends of humanity to great efforts to save these young men from the degradation and misery to which they are fast descending.

Musical boxes for children, just introduced, are about ten inches in circumference and two or three inches high. The music is produced by a crank, which can be turned to the right and left, a bit of thoughtful workmanship and mechanism, the infant of the period fully appreciates. Two tunes are "churned" in this style—the baby is in raptures and mamma resumes her novel.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1874.

THE DAY.

Our own is one of the seven states in which the post office business pays expenses. The other six are Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, Pensylvania and New Jersey. In how many will the postal telegraph pay?

The Western Union Telegraph Company yesterday procured in a New York city court an injunction against the Manhattan Telegraph Company of most extraordinary extent, and if it is not dissolved it will give the former company a complete monopoly in that city and the same principles may be made to kill any competing line in the country. The injunction is granted in the following words. "Restraining them from in any manner obstructing any telegraph pole or wire owned or used by the plaintiffs, and from erecting or constructing any telegraphic line at or between any points on any side of any street in the city on which point or points any telegraph line is now or shall hereafter be erected or constructed by the plaintiffs." "Is now or shall be erected" establishes a pretty complete monopoly.

It is said that the President has been petitioned to appoint to the Chief Justiceship the Hon. E. Rockwood Hoar, formerly of the supreme court of Massachusetts and more recently Attorney General. The petitioners must be strangely ignorant of the President or much opposed to Judge Hoar's nomination. This gentleman is undoubtedly one of the most eminent jurists of the country, and his "record" is excellent, but while Attorney General he gave offence to some of the Senators and was rejected when nominated to an associate justiceship in the Supeme Court. Whether he would be willing to go before the Senate again or not is a question. It is said that the President has given up the plan of surprising both nominees and public, and will not send another name to the Senate in connection with this matter, without previously ascertaining that the owner of the name is willing to be dissected in a Senatorial clinic. It is to be hoped that he will also cease surprising the public by his nominations.

The committee that was sent to New Orleans to investigate Durell has returned to Washington and made a sickening report. There seems to be the clearest evidence that he has been committing the most unblushing frauds while occupying the federal bench. It would be an outrageous scandal if so infamous a judge were allowed to avoid impeachment by resignation. With him ought to fall the whole so called Kellogg government which his unlawful acts established.

The whole state of Louisiana is in a terrible condition and it will be criminal in Congress to leave the state to the leeches that are battening on it. Some of the reconstruction of the Southern states does not seem to have been very successful. South Carolina is begging for martial law or a territorial form of government. Texas has gone overwhelmingly Democratic and of the prospects in Louisiana, the committee is greatly disheartened. [Property of all kinds is rapidly deteriorating. Within two years country property has declined from fifty to seventy five per cent., and property in New Orleans from thirty to fifty. The taxes virtually amount to confiscation. Property that would not sell for $5000 is assessed at $20,000, and property renting in the city at $1200 is assessed at $1500. When the sub-committee does not express its opinion in advance of reporting to the full committee, it is quite evident from the character of the testimony collected that Durell will be impeached; if he does not escape by resigning.

......Professor Longfellow wrote as follows to Salvini after seeing his performance of Hamlet:—

CAMBRIDGE, November 30, 1873.

"ILLUSTRIOUS SIR: Permit me to thank you heartily for the pleasure you have given me by your invitation to your performance of yesterday. I say pleasure, but I should say delight. It was a magnificent representation in which I can scarcely tell whether nature was superior to art, or art to nature; but together they form an incognito indistinto which was most admirable and left me surprised and astonished. I shall go to town tomorrow, so that I may thank you in person, and meanwhile I remain your devoted and obliged friend,

HENRY W. LONGFELLOW.

......Bishop George would never have his portrait taken. "If I were to," he said, "it would be engraved and hung in some good brother's parlor, and by and by the good brother would fail in business or die, and his effects would be put up for public sale, and the voluble auctioneer would come across me in a pile of household trumpery, and, as, he held me suspended by thumb and finger, he would cry, "Now, gentlemen, here's your chance! your only chance! perhaps your last chance! to buy a bishop! How much am I bid for a bishop? Twelve and a half cents for a bishop! only a York shilling for a Methodist bishop! Do I hear any more? Going! going! gone! Only twelve and a half cents, dog cheap, for a Methodist bishop!"

Steamer Sphynx, which arrived at Halifax from Jamaica on Monday, brought 101 officers and men of the frigate Aboukir who are more or less affected by yellow fever, the disease being contracted by them while on general leave from the ship. Nineteen of the Aboukir's crew died from the fever at Kingston, besides Lieutenant Thompson and wife, the commodore's secretary, Mr. Drew, and Mrs. Morton, wife of the naval clerk. The Sphynx lost two of her crew from yellow fever, and another died since the vessel arrived here. The remainder here are fever-stricken. The crew were removed to the hospital. The Niobe and other ships are expected to arrive in a few days.

The unemployed "working men" of Chicago clamor for a share of the "fire relief fund," which amounts to $600,000.

In the Bricklayers' convention, Baltimore resolutions condemning Mullett, the Treasury architect, for recommending the repeal of the eight hour law and characterizing the recommendation as an insult to the working men of the country, were unanimously passed. They will be sent to the President and Congress.

The federal council at Berlin has confirmed the formation of a German commission to visit the American Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia.

In the French Assembly the general debate on the bill providing for the nomination of mayors by the government was concluded, and the chamber resolved, by 378 yeas to 316 nays, to proceed to the discussion of the claims of the bill.

In the Tichborne case Dr. Keneally Wednesday concluded his closing speech for the defence. He demanded a verdict for the claimant, declaring that the preponderance of unshaken evidence in his favor, was overwhelming. He maintained that the charges against Lady Radcliffe had been proved true.

A preliminary organization of a new secret order to supplement the Farmers' Grangers, and to receive all classes of citizens interested in transportation and other questions affecting industrial pursuits has been effected in Albany, with A. S. Draper as secretary pro tem. A meeting to perfect the organization will be held two weeks hence.

Col. Thomas N. Stillwell, minister to Venezuela during Johnson's administration, was shot and instantly killed by John E. Corwin, at Anderson, Ind., Wednesday evening. Corwin and Stillwell were disputing about some financial matters connected with the Stillwell Bank, of Anderson, when Stillwell drew a pistol and fired. The ball struck a silver dollar in Corwin's pocket, wounding him slightly in the leg. Corwin then fired, hitting Stillwell in the right temple, the ball passing through the brain. Corwin gave himself up.

In the case of the city chamberlain of St. Paul against the St. Paul and Sioux city and the Southern Minnesota Railroads, in which he sues to recover the value of old state bonds, Judge Dillon, of the United States court, has decided that these roads are not liable, as the state had foreclosed on the roads for which the bonds were issued, and sold their lands to these new roads, but the debts cannot follow the lands, and the state has not transferred its responsibility. He emphatically decides that the state is legally and in honor bound to pay the bonds.

In the meeting of the national board of trade in Baltimore Wednesday a resolution was passed in favor of an international commission of the maritime powers for the purpose of laying ocean tracks for steam vessels on the Atlantic. The subject of the revision of the laws bearing on trade was brought up and a resolution passed denouncing the laws rewarding informers of the violation of the custom laws. Resolutions were also reported against the further issue of irredeemable paper currency, and other matters which were laid over for future discussion.

At the millers' national convention, in Chicago the following resolutions were adopted to be submitted to transportation lines: First, that flour in packages have precedence in shipment and rates over wheat in bulk; second, that a tariff of rates be adjusted upon an equitable basis, without discrimination or prejudice to the interest of millers; third, that uniformity and steadiness of rates be maintained a matter of the utmost importance, without which there can be really no permanency in the market. A committee recommended that a paper be established to advocate the objects of the association.

In the Maine senate Wednesday, the committee on senatorial votes, in the Waldo county case, reported in favor of E. K. Boyle. A petition was presented and referred to compel the erection and maintenance of a passenger station at North Berwick, for the joint occupancy of the Boston and Maine and Portland, Saco and Portsmouth Railroads. In the house the Senate resolve requiring returns from banks to the secretary of state was passed to be engrossed in concurrence. The following were presented and referred: Petitions of the Bangor and Shore Line Railroad for authority to build a bridge across the Penobscot river, at Verona; relating to fencing railroads. Bills—relating to the embezzlement of property of deceased persons; to establish the lines in Fore river, Portland harbor; a memorial of the Maine General Hospital aid.

It is stated in regard to the reported murder at Bartlett, N. H., on the Portland and Ogdensburg Railroad extension, that a Swede came to a camp of some twenty-five Swedes, Saturday, having $200 in his possession. He slept with two other Swedes. In the morning he was found dead, and his money gone. His friend, in the morning alleged that the two murdered and robbed him, when one of the parties who slept with him rushed at the accuser. The Swede drew a knife and plunged it into his breast, killing him instantly. The other man, who slept with him came forward to assist his friend; when he was in turn, stabbed, and will probably die. Finger marks were found on the throat of the dead man. The Swede was arrested and lodged in Ossipee jail. The best information, so far, seems to show that the two men stabbed had killed the Swede in the night, and that the man arrested acted in self defence.

CALEB CUSHING.—The very insignificant cause of this sudden demoralization is a simple letter of introduction written more than a dozen years ago; and from the consternation that it produced may be judged the value of the beliefs and principles so easily disturbed. It will be seen that this limits the range of the President's selection very considerably. Tried by the same standard of loyalty, it is evident that Morton's record will present equal obstacles to any possible ambition he may have. Cameron must take his place among the traitors; Sargent, who has enjoyed the distinction of being hanged by his constituents, is not much more in effigy eligible; and as for Butler, his services in the convention over which Cushing presided peculiarly entitle him to assume the relation of "dear friend" to the rebel President. A consideration of no less alarming character is that which relates to the corruption of the Republican administration by this newly-discovered rebel. Treason has evidently permeated the government. For none other than the author of this letter of introduction is mentioned by Senator Conkling as giving "advice and counsel in reconstruction matters." Butler refers to him as the author of the fourteenth amendment and as one of the prime movers in the attempted impeachment of Johnson; and from the revision of Fish's diplomatic despatches to the preparation of the government's case at Geneva, the trail of this terrible traitor is over everything.—[Boston Post.

—Ann MacMann, whose case was before the court the other day for an assault upon Henry Wixen, was fined ten dollars and costs.

—A horse belonging to Anderson's express fell on Thames street this morning, but was got up uninjured.

—The name of Miss Etta Gorton was inadvertently omitted from the names of the committee of Aquidneck Engine Company's fair in our list, published yesterday.

—One of our citizens has Pawtuxet water from Providence for family use as Newport's system of water works does not suit him.

—Mr. Thomas Tew of the firm of Tew & Crosby, proprietors of the bathing houses is lying dangerously ill at his residence on Ayrault street.

—Any contributions for the Aquidneck Engine Co's fair may be left at the places of business of W. H. Westcott and John Ramsden. Tickets will be for sale at the same places.

—A social meeting of the captains and engineers of the fire departments was held at the residence of Chief Engineer Cozzens last evening. The proceedings were all under the rose.

—Mrs. Charles T. Hazard died quite suddenly at her residence on Catherine street this morning. She had been in poor health for years but her early death was not anticipated by her friends.

—The "sleighs" held high carnival on our streets yesterday afternoon. We are told that it was impossible to find one not in use. It is so seldom that Newport enjoys any really good opportunity for this sport that it is improved to its greatest extent.

—Hon. Duncan C. Pell was stricken with apoplexy while walking on Thames street this morning. He was taken temporarily to the United States Hotel and attended by Drs. Sands and Francis. At about one o'clock he was removed to his residence on Mary street, where he lies in a critical condition.

—On Tuesday next the public will have an opportunity of visiting the Rogers High School. Mr. Tilton will be present from ten to twelve o'clock in the forenoon and from two to five o'clock in the afternoon and will be happy to explain all parts of the building to visitors. The formal dedication will probably occur next Wednesday, but a postponement may be necessary.

COMBINAISON EXTRAORDINAIRE!—It is a singular coincidence that, just at this crisis, there should be a lull at the Torpedo Station and a flurry at the Fort.

FANCY DRESS BALL.—The grand masquerade will occur at the Opera House one week from next Tuesday evening. The best music has been engaged for the occasion and no expense will be spared in the efforts to make the ball a complete success. As already announced, Brown and Reeves's full orchestra will furnish the music for dancing and the Redwood band will supply the promenade music. The sale of tickets begins next Tuesday, and persons who wish to attend will do well to call early at the box office, as there will undoubtedly be a rush for tickets. The affair is in good hands and there is no doubt that it will be equal, if not superior, to any fancy dress ball ever given in Newport.

ROBBERY OF A VESSEL.—The Boston schooner Neponset, Capt Finney bound to Tangier for oysters arrived here a few days ago. The sum of $600.00 was left in the cabin by the captain as he thought it was perfectly safe to do so when he came ashore. The money belonged to the shipper. Isaac Richoco of Boston was entrusted to the captain to pay for his cargo of oysters. While on shore the cook, Robert Lecount of Swampscott took the money and escaped. The police were immediately notified and it was found that he had been at the United States Hotel and also at the Perry House yesterday morning early and that he had purchased a ticket for New Bedford for the 7:15 A. M. train yesterday. Captain Finney with Officer Alcok. Steele, procured a sleigh and started yesterday noon to overtake the thief. As yet, nothing has been heard from either party.

THE ANIMAL KINGDOM.—Professor Morse lectured last evening on "The animal kingdom." He succeeded admirably in making a scientific lecture of great interest to a general audience, including many who know very little about the subject. The lecturer was very clear and concise, and it would be very difficult to compress more information than he gave, in an attractive form, into so short a lecture. Prof. Morse's abilities as a draughtsman are wonderful. Two or three strokes with the chalk were enough to make a capital likeness of beast, bird, or fish. The differences between the four branches of the animal kingdom and the resemblances between the families and species of each branch were made quite clear by a few sketches which Prof. Morse drew equally well with either hand or with both hands at once.

THE PRESS.—Now that the New York Times has gone distinctly into opposition to the recent acts of the President, the administration really has no organ in the great city of New York. This probably doesn't trouble President Grant, who, during his whole career, has not only paid no attention to the wishes of newspaper editors, but has shown a curious dislike to them. The "Liberal movement," so-called, was in great part due to the offence taken at his personal bearing towards them by the great editors of the country—Greeley, Halstead, White, Bowles, Watterson and company. If the leading Republican press is unanimous in anything, it is in condemnation of President Grant in his recent course touching the Chief Justiceship. However, if he does right, and serves the people, he can afford to let the editors do their worst. The latter are as apt to make mistakes as Presidents and Cabinet ministers are. This is proved by the course of the press on a great many occasions within the past few years. If the administration can hold its majorities in both branches of Congress and satisfy the public it need not fear the newspapers.—[New York Graphic.

SUNDRIES.

A Vicksburg paper says, "There was a grand installation in the colored Masonic fraternity, followed by a ball, a supper, and a general good time, at the courthouse Thursday night." The paper protests against the occupation of the temple of justice for such purposes, not on account of its inappropriateness, but because of the gas bills.

"One who had the reputation of being a great philosopher, an experienced man of the world; a profound thinker, and an acute observer, with a deep insight into human nature, has left on record the expression of his firm conviction that no man, however gifted, however fortunate in his domestic relations; however successful in his public undertakings, can be pronounced happy—whose trousers bag at the knees."—[Punch.

Harpers' Bazar says: "In the present fancy for dressing the neck, the veil is about to be made to do duty in this way. A new veil just introduced by a leading modiste is a scarf of Spanish net three yards long and three-eighths of a yard wide. The middle of the scarf covers the face like a mask veil, the sides are caught back, pinned by a veil pin, and without being crossed are brought forward under the chin and wrapped around the neck like a muffler. The net has figures of three leaves together, and after finding a thin place for the eyes these figures are permitted to veil and almost conceal the features. The effect is very pretty, and the price is $14."

One of the prettiest fancies of the season is the adoption of the gentlemen's buttonhole buquet, which is used in place of a breastpin upon tullé lace or crêpe de chêne as scarfs or neckties. The spray usually consists of an English rose (long stemmed, half open), a geranium leaf and sprig of heliotrope, all inserted in a little golden tube, which is fastened at the back with a pin. This is placed to the left of the bow or ends of lace, and is very pretty and very suggestive of the freshness and sweetness which are considered the especial attributes of youth. All the girls wear them, and natural flowers being the rage, frequently place a spray in the belt as well, and another in the hair.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

The Indian commissioners and Indian missionaries held a conference lately at which reports of Indian progress were made, and considerable remarks made because only $16000 a year was paid to the missionaries by the government.

The House committee on military affairs has heard a general statement of Major Powell, of the government exploring expedition west of the 100th meridian, as to his views respecting the condition of the Indians and the Indian policy, and especially in regard to the amount of military force necessary in the Indian country.

The Postmaster General has written a letter to the House committee on post offices, recommending legislation to cover back into the Treasury the additional subsidy of $600,000, granted the Pacific Mail Steamship Company two years ago for carrying the mails from San Francisco to China and Japan, the Company having failed to carry out their part of the contract.

The first steamer of the new line which carries the mail to the Australasian colonies via the Sandwich and the Fiji Islands, will leave San Francisco on the 31st inst. Correspondence should be forwarded to the San Francisco distributing office. The rates of postage are ten cents to the Sandwich Islands and twelve cents to the Australasian colonies. Prepayment is required. The Postmaster General of New South Wales was at the Post Office Department, Wednesday, and arranged with Postmaster General Creswell a postal treaty which will probably be executed at once. It will provide for the exchange of mails by the new line of steamers, on the same terms as those already established by the postal convention with New Zealand.

The way in which Congress is constantly baffled by the Supervising Architect in its attempts to prescribe a limit to the cost of the public buildings, was explained by Messrs. Dawes and Beck today. It appears to make no difference how strong prohibitions Congress may insert in the law, the architect puts up a structure to suit his own ideas, no matter what the cost may be. The New York post office was cited as an example. The law provided that it should not cost more than $3,000,000, and that no money should be spent until estimates and contracts had been made within this figure. Mr. Mullet went on to erect a building that was an architectural monstrosity, on account of its insufficient height. Then Congress had to authorize the addition of another story. This the architect held to remove all restrictions as to the cost, and he has already spent $5,794,000 on the building. The Boston post office, the cost of which was fixed by law at $1,500,000, has absorbed $2,763,000. A remedy for this abuse was proposed by Mr. Randall, in the shape of a penal statute, imposing a fine for exceeding the amount of the authorized expenditure. This was offered as an amendment to the naval bill, on which the debate somewhat inappropriately arose. There is a talk of putting it on all the appropriation bills.

The subject of woman suffrage was before the House committee on territories Wednesday. Mr Wilcox, a delegate from the New York Woman's Suffrage Society, said that woman suffrage in Utah originated in an address before the same committee five years ago. Delegate Cannon, of that territory, admitted the statement was substantially correct. Mr Willcox claimed the enfranchisement was first proposed as the only practicable mode of extirpating polygamy, had it would have that effect if the secrecy of the vote was secured by abolishing the marking of ballots with numbers or otherwise; that till this secrecy was secured woman had not had a fair trial, and said further that the woman suffrage element was unanimous on this question, and that in the forthcoming political combination this element would be powerful. Mrs. Heineman, of Pittsburg, agent of the Pensylvania Woman Suffrage Society, said if suffrage could be taken from women, it should be taken from men for the same reason. She objected to the extension of the common law of 1776 over the woman of the territory of Utah, Mr. Carey stated that the Poland bill, which he would accept, simply operated to substitute the common for the civil law, where not modified by decisions and legislation in Utah. To this Mr. Wilcox assented and Mr. McKee, chairman of the committee, stated that the committee desired this and nothing more. Mr. Carey said the Mormons enfranchised the women of Utah to outvote the Gentiles, and they had no purpose or desire to elevate their women thereby. This latter allegation was emphatically contradicted by Mr. Cannon.

GEORGIA FARMING.—From Georgia comes an account of a negro who rented a farm last January on the following terms: He was to keep the fences in good repair, and to have mules, implements, and provisions on credit, and he was to return therefor, on the 1st of December, a certain number of bales of cotton by the 25th September the cotton was delivered, and the debt for eight mules and for grain and provisions was paid to the last dollar. Besides, enough corn had been raised to last during the coming year. This farm is in south western Georgia where the land is good. The account simply shows what is possible. The question arises why cannot other negroes do as well—and even why white men cannot. Is the deficiency in the races or in the training and instruction they receive? or is it in the influence of the climate?

NEW YORK ITEMS.

Judge Blatchford, of the United States district court, has denied the motion for the discharge of Joab Lawrence, who is held on an extradition warrant charged with swindling a number of people in Michigan by means of worthless mining stock. He is now in the custody of the sheriff awaiting the action of Gov. Dix.

Shortly before 1 o'clock Wednesday morning, at a boarding house in Columbia street, Brooklyn, two Swedish sailors became involved in a quarrel over a game of cards, when one of them drew a large clasp knife and stabbed the other in five different places. The man died in a few minutes. The assassin, Peter Swensen, was arrested.

United States Commissioner Davenport has sued Comptroller Green for salary as supervisor of elections, the comptroller refusing to pay, as under the new charter of this city, which was engineered by Davenport through the legislature last year, no person is allowed to hold a federal and municipal office at the same time. The supreme court uphold Comptroller Green in refusing to pay Davenport while drawing a federal salary.

Bernot Glandi, a Frenchman, and five Cubans, named Leonardo Albarez, Andrez Villes, John Freeman, Francois Pachaio and Filipe Marti, all of the crew of the Cuban privateer Virginius, have called on United States Commissioner Shields and stated that they wanted to get home, but had no means. The Cuban League refused to do anything for them, and Glandi had applied in vain to the French consul to be sent home. The commissioner said he would introduce them to the United States attorney. An Englishman named Parker was with them, but he will be sent home by the British consul.

A despatch from Pottsville, Pa., says that the difficulty between the miners and coal operators in this region assumes graver aspects every hour. President Gowen has ordered the stoppage of all improvements to his mines and the cessation of all work upon shafts now being sunk, and has declared his intention to cease all operations in this region until the men submit. This will render individual operators powerless to work, because they will be refused cars, and the coal roads will be stopped until the controversy is settled. The miners and operators of Northumberland county have agreed to keep on at work upon the old basis of last year ($2 50), but as Gowen controls the land on which the coal is mined and the railroad over which the coal is transported, this action will amount to nothing. The stoppage will throw out of employment, besides 9000 miners, over half the railroad employes of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad and a large number of men in the repair shops of the company. It is stated that a general discharge will take place in these departments at once.

The Great Antagonist of Disease.

What is the natural antagonist of disease? It is the vital principle. From the moment that disease is developed in the system, this champion fights the intruder until it either conquers or is conquered. Which side should medicinal science espouse in this life and death struggle? Should it depress and cripple the physical energies of the patient, thereby helping the disorder, or should it reinforce the vitality of the patient and thereby assist in quelling the ailment? Of course the proper answer to this question must be obvious to every one above the grade of an idiot or a lunatic, and hence it follows that the weak and broken down invalid who chooses to dose himself with depleting slops, instead of toning, invigorating and vitalizing his enervated frame with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, must be either feeble minded or deranged. Surely nothing short of imbecility or insanity could induce a person laboring under bodily weakness and nervous prostration, to take day after day powerful doses of some drastic purgative in the hope of gaining strength. Although charlatans may advertise preparations of this character as tonics, people in the full possession of their reason can not, one would think, accept them as such. If they do the penalty of their credulity may be the shortening of their lives. The rheumatic, the dyspeptic, the bilious, the debilitated and nervous, and all who are subject to intermittents, or other diseases brought on by the inclement weather which prevails at this season, will do well to strengthen their nerves, tone their stomachs and regulate their bowels with the Bitters. The two fold operation of the restorative as an invigorant and an aperient, in addition to its direct and specific effect upon the disordered liver, renders it a most efficient remedy for complaints of the digestive, secretive and excretive organs, at present in use. This fact is conceded by eminent members of the faculty whose testimony to that effect is published in Hostetter's Almanac for 1874.

CHAPPED HANDS, face, rough skin, pimples, ring worm, salt-rheum and other cutaneous affections cured, and the skin made soft and smooth, by using the JUNIPER TAR SOAP, made by CASWELL, HAZARD & Co., New York. PIMPLES AND HUMORS ON THE FACE.—In this condition of the skin, the VEGETINE is the great remedy as it acts directly upon the cause. It cleanses and purifies the blood, thereby causing humors of all kinds to disappear.

PAIN-KILLER,

THE GREAT

Family Medicine of the Age.

Taken Internally It Cures

Dysentery, Cholera, Diarrhea, Cramp and Pain in Stomach, Bowel Complaints, Painters' Colic, Liver Complaint; Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sore Throat, Sudden Colds. Coughs, &c., &c.

Used Externally, It Cures

Boils, Felons, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Old Sores, Sprains, Toothache, Pain in the Face, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Frosted Feet, &c., &c., &c.

PAIN-KILLER,

after a thorough trial by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that its sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the

upon the patient when taken internally, in case of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaint, Cholera, Dysentery, and other afflictions of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century.

The Pain Killer

derives much of its popularity from the simplicity attending its use, which gives it a peculiar value in a family. The various diseases which may be reached by it, and in their incipient stages eradicated, are among those which are peculiarly fatal if suffered to run; but the curative magic of this preparation at once disarms them of their terrors. In all respects it fulfills the conditions of a popular medicine.

Be sure you call for and get the genuine Pain-Killer, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable medicine.

Newport Daily News.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1874.

GENERAL NEWS.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The centennial committee of the House at their meeting today, had before them members of the executive committee of the centennial commission. They explained at length their plans and prospects, and asked the committee to urge an appropriation by Congress and proper recognition by the government.

CIVIL SERVICE.

Representative Kellogg, chairman of the civil service committee, has addressed a letter to the heads of all departments here requesting them to furnish the committee with a list of all clerks in the departments, the states they were appointed from, the amount of salaries received, etc. It is the intention of the committee to make a thorough examination into the matter, believing that considerable reduction can be made in the force now employed in different departments of government. The services of several hundred clerks, it is thought, can be dispensed with.

OH! OH! HOWARD.

The House committee on Military affairs, after hearing statements of members Brunot and Ingalls with regard to the removal of troops from the Indian country, decided to take up the case of General Howard tomorrow and determine whether he should be tried by a military court or by civil process.

ESTIMATES.

The appropriations committee today, after making some changes in the naval appropriation bill, took up the bill introduced by Dawes to compel the heads of departments to send in their estimates for appropriations in a more explicit form than is now done, but did not come to any conclusion.

E. ROCKWOOD HOAR.

A New England member has just informed me that a petition is in circulation in the House, signed by a large number of members, asking the President to appoint E. Rockwood Hoar of Massachusetts chief-justice.

CALEB CUSHING.

The impression is that Caleb Cushing will decline the Madrid mission.

RETRENCHMENT.

The appropriation committee passed its first bill today and its policy of retrenchment was fully indorsed by the house. All attempts to increase appropriations failed in spite of the attempts of several members interested personally in having a large force and lavish expenditures at the navy yards in their districts. The amendment of Mr. Randall, to make it a penal offence for any officer of the government to exceed appropriations or to enter into contracts for sums beyond those appropriated, came within a few votes of passing and will probably be added to some of the bills to come.

DURELL'S CASE.

The evidence shows a very unpromising case for Mr. Durell, and that the days of his usefulness are about ended. Among the important points of the testimony are the following, in regard to the midnight order, as it is termed, issued by Durell, by which the Mechanics' Institute place of meeting of the legislature was seized. It came out that the order was issued on Durell's own motion and without the knowledge of either attorneys acting in the matter. In other words, Durell made the motion for this order to himself as judge, and in the latter capacity issued it.

It also appeared that Durell made his orders in regard to one of his familiars, for the purpose of throwing the chief business bankrupt cases into his hands. The first order was directing that in all bankrupt cases this special friend, named Norton, should be assignee except where the creditors appointed some other person. Lest this appointment of other persons should after a time take the business out of Norton's hands, it was further provided in the order that he should act as co-assignee in all this latter class of cases.

When the trouble arose about excessive fees, Durell made another order to the effect that no complaint about fees or papers looking to securing a remedy for excessive fees should be filed, unless fifty dollars was first deposited. This of course greatly lessened the formal complaints about the rates fixed by Norton.

TRANSFER OF THE INDIAN BUREAU.

The bill now introduced provides that the Secretary of War shall have the same power and jurisdiction after July next, now possessed by the Secretary of the Interior, in relation to all the acts of the commissioner of Indian affairs; that officers of the army shall take places of superintendents, agents, etc., whenever the secretary shall see fit; that said army officers shall be charged with all the duties of Indian agents, with extra compensation; the bureau to be under the direction of a brigadier general. Contracts for transportation are to be made in the same manner as in the army, and special licenses to traders may be withheld by the secretary in accordance with the laws relating to the same. The bill is to be considered by the House military committee, many of the members being understood as favoring the proposition.

TRANSPORTATION.

Members of the Senate committee on transportation express the opinion that the measure decided upon by that committee will be reported in favor of one line of water communication between the East and West.

At a late hour to night an opinion prevails among a large number of Congressmen that Senator Conkling may accept the Chief Justiceship. He has left Washington for New York.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

Representative Page of California will offer tomorrow a resolution instructing the foreign relations committee to report a concurrent resolution advising the President to open negotiations for a modification of the treaty with China, so as to check or altogether prevent Chinese immigration to this country.

VICE-PRESIDENT WILSON'S HEALTH.

Vice-President Wilson says his health is much improved. He will not resume his place in the Senate at present, but will next week return to Massachusetts. He has abandoned his trip to Florida.

THE MEXICAN VETERANS' CONVENTION.

Delegates to the national convention of the Mexican war veterans, now in this city, represents all sections of the country. At noon today they marched from headquarters to Willard Hall, with banners and bands of music, under the escort of the President's mounted guard, a local organization.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Two murders are chronicled this morning, one of which occurred Jersey City, the other in Brooklyn. The Jersey crime was the murder of a mother by a son—a natural sequence to the Walworth murder. But the murderer will experience to his cost that he did not shoot his mother on this side the river. The other murder is one of the old standard sort—one of the typical class that can be found by the hundred in the Newgate calendar and similar records. Two sailors quarreled in their cups, and one stabbed the other and was soon after caught.

A STOCK EXCHANGE BANK.

The movement which has been agitated since October for the establishment of a bank and clearing house for the use of stock and bond brokers, has assumed definite form. The first paragraph of the proposition reads as follows: "It is proposed to start a bank, to be known as the New York Stock Exchange Bank and Clearing House, with a capital of $5,000,000, with privilege of increasing from time to time; said bank and clearing house to be established for the mutual benefit of the stockholders thereof, its principal object being to diminish the risk, expense and detail necessary to the present mode of doing business; to obviate to a very great extent the dependence upon banks for the certification of checks; to enable the members of the exchange to participate in the advantages and profits of such an institution, and to become naturally interested in carrying out a successful issue the proposition."

FIRE IN BROOKLYN.

There was a fire today at the Raymond street jail, Brooklyn, originating from a defective flue, the wood work adjoining which ignited and the smoke in dense volumes ascended to the second and third tiers, causing intense excitement among the prisoners in the cells. Nobody was injured. The loss was trifling. Considerable excitement prevailed in the neighborhood.

FIRE IN NEW YORK.

This afternoon a fire broke out in the Empire stores, comprising a section of eight buildings, located on Front street, Brooklyn, which before being controlled were partially destroyed. Three of the sections were owned by Nesbit & Sons.

Several firemen had narrow escapes from the falling timbers. The loss on the buildings is estimated at $225,000 dollars, and on stock $75,000; the insurance is not ascertained. Three of the same section of stores were destroyed by fire in 1868, causing a loss of $150,000.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TAUNTON, Jan. 15.—A serious accident occurred this morning to the train leaving New Bedford at a quarter after ten o'clock, by which eleven persons were injured, four of them very seriously. It appears that the engine and three cars had safely passed the switch at Middleborough Junction, but the three following cars were thrown off the track, two being precipitated down an embankment some twelve feet in depth, and the other one remaining by the side of the rails. At first it was supposed a misplaced switch was the cause of the catastophe, but this theory is dispelled and all blame taken from the switchman by virtue of the fact that a portion of the the train passed the spot in safety. The frog at this point being split in three pieces now plainly shows that the cause must have been a breakage of the iron by frost or otherwise. There were rumors that several passengers were killed, but happily such is not the case. Eleven passengers were injured.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—Pacific mail steamship China arrived this morning. A defective pistol was the cause of her detention. She lies low in the water, and is coming up the harbor with only one wheel working.

PROVIDENCE, Jan. 15.—A fire in the workshop of the state prison, about 5 o'clock this morning, damaged the building between $4,000 and $5000 worth; no insurance. William Sweeney of this city lost between $5000 and $6000 on furniture in the same building, upon which he had a policy for $2000. Among the other sufferers were the Boston Chair Company, L. H. Sawin and Philander Derby of Gardiner, Mass., who lost a few hundred dollars' worth of stock.

GALVESTON, Texas, Jan. 15.—A despatch from Austin states that the votes for governor were counted by the legislature this afternoon. The following is the state vote for governor, Cooke had 85,540 votes; Davis, 42,663 votes. For lieutenant-governor, Hubbard had 86,825 votes, and Taylor 42,812 votes.

Serious Railroad Accident.

The train which left New Bedford Thursday at 10.15 on the New Bedford Railroad ran off the track and rolled down the embankment near the junction of the Middleborough and Taunton road, two miles this side of Taunton. Superintendent Ladd at once sent out a wrecking train.

The New Bedford Standard received the following dispatch from Dr. Hayes:

The midday train is off the track at Middleborough Junction. Eleven persons are injured, four seriously, as follows: Albert A. Slocum, Providence, fractured ribs and bleeding from the lungs; H. G. Pomeroy, of New Bedford, master mechanic of the Fairhaven Branch, injured in back; R. E. Ladd, of Taunton, scalp wound; H. Meyers, of New Bedford, slightly wounded; Arthur Tucker, of South Dartmouth, slightly wounded; Mrs. Charles Tucker, slightly wounded; Miss Marion Bartlett, of New Bedford, injury to leg; Julia Thompson, of South Dartmouth, slightly injured: Mrs. Seth Delano, of Fairhaven, injury to back; Rev. Hiram Sweet, of South Dartmouth, severely injured; John McCarty, severe wound of face.

Dr. Arthur Ricketson and myself were aboard the train, and have attended to the wounded. My brother and myself are uninjured.

DR. S. W. HAYES.

It is understood Mr. Pomeroy's injuries are quite serious. He, with Mr. Slocum of Providence, was taken to the City Hotel in Taunton, where medical assistance was called.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1874.

HOUSES IN THE TREE TOPS.—Among the papers presented to Parliament relating to the South Sea Islanders is a report by Captain C. H. Simpson, of her Majesty's ship Blanche, giving an account of his visit last year to the Solomons and other groups of islands in the Pacific Ocean. While at Isabel Island, Captain Simpson, with a party of officers, went a short distance inland to visit one of the remarkable tree villages peculiar, he believes, to this island. He found the village built on the summit of a rocky mountain rising almost perpendicularly to a height of eight hundred feet. The party ascended by a native path from the interior, and found the extreme summit a mass of enormous rocks standing up like a castle, among which grow the gigantic trees, in the branches of which the houses of the natives are built. The stems of these trees lie perfectly straight and smooth, without a branch, to a height varying from fifty feet to one hundred and fifty feet. In the one Captain Simpson ascended the house was just eighty feet from the ground; one close to it was about one hundred and twenty feet. The only means of approach to these houses is by a ladder made of a creeper suspended from a post within the house, and which of course can be hauled up at will. The houses are most ingeniously built and are very firm and strong. Each house will contain from ten to twelve natives; and an ample store of stones is kept, which they throw both with slings and with the hand with great force and precision. At the foot of each of these trees is another hut, in which the family usually reside, the tree house only being resorted to at night and during times of expected danger.

DUMAS'S RETORT.—Prior to the production of the younger Dumas's play, "Monsieur Alphonse," he was at Dieppe, and was accosted by a grand lady of aristocratic lineage, whom he met in the popular lounging-place. The conversation ran thus:

Lady—It is true, Monsieur Dumas, that you have given up writing plays?

Dumas—On the contrary, Madame, I am preparing at this moment a comedy for the Gymnase.

Lady—Ah yes—another piece displaying the peculiarities of demi-monde life, I suppose.

Dumas—Oh, no; my new piece deals only with life among ladies of the best society.

Lady (sneeringly)—And where, pray, have you studied that life?

Dumas—In my own family, madam.

THE PILGRIM MONUMENT.—At the meeting of the trustees of the Pilgrim Society held in Plymouth on the 22d inst., Mr. Billings, the architect of the National Monument to the Pilgrims, made a report. The subscription of sums per foot has progressed so far that Mr. Billings proposes at a very early day to conclude a contract with the Bodwell Granite Company of Rockland, Me., for the erection of the entire pedestal during the coming season. The monument is divided into eight sections—the first three composing the pedestal, the next four the statues on the buttresses, and the eighth the figure of Faith. The first three sections will be included in the proposed contract, the remainder being left until the completion of the subscriptions.

CHARCOAL FOR POULTRY.—The benefit which fowls derive from eating charcoal is, I believe, acknowledged. The method of putting it before them is, however, not well understood. Pounded charcoal is not in the shape in which fowls usually find their food. I have found that corn burnt on the cob and the refuse, which consists almost entirely of the grains reduced to charcoal, and still retaining their perfect shape, placed before them, is greedily eaten by them, with a marked improvement in their health, as shown by the brighter color of their combs, and their sooner producing a greater average of eggs to the flock than before.—[S. Rufus Mason, in the Poultry World.

A SCENE OF EXCITEMENT.—The Frankfort (Ky.) Patriot, of December 31, says: "Quite a serious accident occurred at the Salem Church, in this county, last Wednesday, during the distribution of gifts from a Christmas tree. The floor gave way on one side of the church, and an immediate rush was made for the opposite side of the edifice. The floor at this point gave way next and, the stove being displaced, two long stove pipes fell upon the struggling crowd. The room was soon filled with smoke, and the screaming of women and children added greatly to the violence of the panic. Everybody rushed for the doors, but, although several persons were injured, nobody was seriously hurt."

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures by its mild, healing properties, to which the disease yields when the system has been put in perfect order with Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which should be taken earnestly to correct blood and system, which are always at fault, also to act specifically, upon the diseased glands of the nose and its chambers. Catarrh Remedy should be applied with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, with which medicine can be carried high up and perfectly applied to all parts of passages and chambers in which sores and ulcers exist, and from which discharge proceeds. So successful has this course of treatment proven, that the proprietor offers $500 Reward for a case of "Cold in Head" or Catarrh which he cannot cure. WOMAN.

By an immense practice, extending through a period of many years, having within that time treated over nine thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and agreeable medicine that meets the indications presented by that class of diseases with positive certainty and exactness.

To designate this natural specific compound, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my most matured appreciation of its value, based upon actual and witnessed realities. As a close observer, I have while witnessing its positive results in the few special diseases incident to the separate organism of woman, singled it out as the chosen overcoming agent of my medical career. On its merits as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will at all times and under all circumstances act kindly and in harmony with the laws which govern the female system, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician. May, even more, so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who employs it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. If a beneficial effect is not experienced by the time two-thirds of the contents of the bottle are used, I will, on the return of the bottle, two-thirds of the medicine having been taken according to directions, and the case being one for which I recommend it, promptly refund the money paid for it. Had I not the most perfect confidence in its virtues, I could not offer it as I do under these conditions; but having witnessed its truly miraculous cures in the hands of cases, I feel warranted and happily safe in risking both my reputation and my money on its merits.

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures—as if by magic and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing Down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, and very many other chronic diseases peculiar to women not mentioned here, in which, as well as in the cases which I have mentioned, my Favorite Prescription works cures—the marvel of the world. This medicine I do not extol as a cure-all, but it admirably fulfils a single class of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of women. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm in any state or condition. IT IS A MOST POWERFUL RESTORATIVE, Promoting Tone to the general as well as the sexual system, also combining the most valuable uterine properties. Both the muscular and nervous forces are also nerthened and built up by its use. It will be found invaluable in diseases incident to pregnancy, and can be taken in moderate doses with perfect safety while in that state. Indeed, it is a Mother's Cordial, and so prepares the system for parturition that it renders child-labor easy. I have received the heartfelt praise from hundreds of mothers for the inestimable benefits thus conferred.

I offer my Favorite Prescription to the Ladies of America with the sincerity of an honest heart, and for their best welfare. Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in my TREATISE ON CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE GENERATIVE AND URINARY ORGANS, sent secure from observation upon receipt of two postage stamps. It treats minutely on those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to their management.

PATENT

PARABOLA SPECTACLES.

Constructed in accordance with the Philosophy of Nature.

ADMIRABLY ADAPTED TO THE ORGANS OF SIGHT, AND AFFORDING ALTOGETHER THE BEST ARTIFICIAL

Help to the Human Vision.

The Parabola Glasses can be used for the greatest length of time, either by day or night, with perfect ease, (when selected to suit the state of the eye,) and never cause that giddiness of the head, or unpleasant sensation to the eyes that many experience from using the common kind, but tend to strengthen and improve the sight.

[From the Rev. Thomas Potter, Norwich Conn.]

Having used a pair of the Parabola Spectacles, I am fully persuaded of their superiority over every other kind, and am confident that the best recommendations are impartial trials. THOMAS POTTER.

[From the Hon. Isaac Hill, late Governor of New Hampshire.]

I have used the Parabola Spectacles for the last three years; and with eyes prematurely injured by severe catarrh for more than forty years, I find them unsurpassed, especially in night reading. ISAAC HILL.

[From M. G. Kerr, M. D., Norristown, Pa.]

I do most willingly bear my testimony in favor of the superiority of the Patent Parabola over all other kinds of Spectacles. They are constructed upon the best established and understood principles of Optics, and their adaptation to the human Eye in its different conditions of vision is so perfect as to render sight easy without effort. In my opinion, none others should be used, since the Eyes once used to these, do not seem to grow old, and by having a focus at any point of the surface they appear to restore the eyes to their youthful energy. M. G. KERR, M. D.

[From Isaac Heister, M. D., Reading, Pa.]

I have for several years worn the Patent Parabola Spectacles, and have found them decidedly superior to the Spectacle glasses heretofore in use. ISAAC HEISTER, M. D.

Should the focus of these Glasses, after making trial of them, be found not adapted to the sight, purchasers are particularly requested to have them changed until suited.
